

NEWS of the RACK VCV

key events • new modules • developer news • module videos • contests • and more

Hello everyone in Rack Land, the fact that we only have virtual modules in VCV Rack opens up many new perspectives. One option that has barely been implemented so far is custom skins. Some developers offer different designs themselves, but in principle it is not a problem to edit the svg files and create your own skins. However, as a rule, these may only be used by themselves. As the first developer, Vult has now released a license that explicitly allows custom skins to be created and distributed. I would like to see this example finding many imitators.

And now to the news.

Developer News

Linden Research has released version 0.6.4 beta2 of its modules. As already announced, it is primarily about different skins. However, this is a pre-release version that can not be found in the Plugin Manager.

A new product version is also available from Alikins with version 0.6.2.

Squinky Labs is also constantly working to improve its modules and is now at version 0.6.11.

Challenges

From week 19 on the Very Cool Patch Contest will be the Very Cool Patch Challenge. In addition, there is no more vote and the turn is now 14 days. It is now also possible to use paid modules. More about the new conditions under <https://www.facebook.com/groups/vcvrack/permalink/272180030108815/>. The module to be used this time is an Addiator of Bogaudio and contributions can be submitted until 19.11.2018 and a new challenge will be announced on 20.11.2018.

In Week 18 of the Very Cool Patch Contest, the module to be used was Tremolo Stereo FX by AS Modules and the winner was Roberto Gomes. Congratulations to the winner and many thanks to all participants.
