Hello everyone in Rack Land,

Last week there was no new module and only a few new versions of already released modules. Maybe the developers are now waiting for VCV-Rack 1.0, which will not be long in coming.

And now to the news.

Also this week there is an outlook on VCV-Rack 1.0. The context menu is extended. It is still called by a right-click on the module, but submenus are now also possible. for manuals, links to websites or factory presets.
