Hello everyone in Rack Land,

Many thanks to everyone who participated in my survey on the future format of the News of the Rack. The result did not surprise me, the weekly newspaper edition will therefore, as desired, pass it on. But there will still be videos, and at the beginning of each month I will always summarize the last month. I think that is a good solution, which also accommodates my ever-striking vocal cords. But most of all I was glad that no one ticked the option "I do not need". Ok, with the thousands who have not said so, there are certainly many who do not need the News of the Rack, but if you statistically extrapolate the result, then the ratio stays the same. I love statistics :-D

And now to the news.

Developer News and other News

Foundry, the latest sequencer from Impromptu Modular, will be released later this week. There is a sneak peak here

New Modules

In the series Audible Instruments Preview the Tidal Modulator 2 has been released. This is the VCV rack version of Tides 2 from Mutable Instruments. The newest modules will appear first in the Paid Preview series, with 80% of the proceeds going to charities. Anyone who has already purchased Preview will receive all further modules free of charge, as well as this one.

Herausforderungen

In Edition 23 of the Very Cool Patch Challenge, the module to use is disto from cf modules. Entries can be submitted until midnight on 14.01.2019 and a new challenge will be announced on 15.01.2019. In Edition 22, the task was to use only external sound sources. The contributions are summarized in a playlist.
